Previous experience and pet knowledge is not necessary. We provide hundreds of paid training hours for employees. However, during your face-to-face interview you'll be asked to handle arachnids (tarantulas), rodents (mice, rats), insects (crickets, worms), reptiles (lizards, snakes), and birds. Can you handle all of these with confidence? Y/N

ESSAY! On the back of this application or on a separate paper, please explain why you are seeking employment with Pet World and what would make you a great addition to the amazing PW staff. Share what you hope to accomplish while working for us and expand on previous life experience that will help you succeed at PW. Remember: you are competing with hundreds of others for this job! When you turn in your app you'll be briefly interviewed by a manager but after that your essay is what will push your app through the next few review stages. Make it interesting and impressive!

Apps with no essays will not be considered.

NOTICE: If you have any criminal convictions related to theft, fraud, violence, or offenses against children, please explain the dates and circumstances on a separate paper in a sealed envelope (with your name on the front) attached to this application. Convictions regarding the personal use of alcohol or drugs or moving violations do not need to be addressed. Criminal convictions will not disqualify you from employment but will need to be disclosed and discussed privately during your face to face interview. Pet World does not routinely drug test, however, all employees should expect regular background checks.
